ORSEAL Ltd OH&S POLICY

The Health & Safety Policy document, including Statement of Intent, Responsibilities and Arrangements will not be included within this Management System. Should it be required to view, the Organisation will make it available to interested parties. The OH&S Policy is held on the company's system and is maintained by the Managing Director.

The OH&S Policy is made available to all relevant interested parties including members of the general public.

The OH&S Policy is subject to regular Management Review in order to ensure that it remains relevant and appropriate to the Organisation's activities.

HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY STATEMENT

The following is a statement of the Organisation's Health & Safety Policy in accordance with Section 2 of the Health & Safety at Work etc., Act 1974.

It is the policy of the Organisation to ensure so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of all employees working for the Organisation and other persons who may be affected by our undertakings.

The Organisation acknowledges that the key to successful Health & Safety management requires an effective policy, organisation and arrangements which reflect the commitment of senior management. To maintain that commitment, we will continually measure, monitor, improve and revise where necessary, an annual plan to ensure that Health & Safety standards are adequately maintained.

The Operational Director will implement the Organisation's Health & Safety Policy and recommend any changes to meet new circumstances. The Organisation recognises that successful Health & Safety management contributes to successful business performance and will allocate adequate finances and resources to meet these needs.

The management of the Organisation looks upon the promotion of Health & Safety measures as a mutual objective for themselves and employees. It is, therefore, the policy of management to do all that is reasonably practicable to prevent personal injury and damage to property. Also, the Organisation aims to protect everyone, including visitors and members of the public, insofar as they come into contact with our activities, from any foreseeable hazard or danger.

All employees have duties under the Health & Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and are informed of their personal responsibilities to take due care of the health and safety of themselves and to ensure that they do not endanger other persons by their acts or omissions. Employees are also informed that they must co-operate with the Organisation in order that it can comply with the legal requirements placed upon it and in the implementation of this policy. The Organisation will ensure continued consultation with the workforce to enable all viewpoints and recommendations to be discussed at regular intervals.

The Organisation will ensure a systematic approach to identifying hazards, assessing the risks, determining suitable and sufficient control measures and informing employees of the correct procedures needed to maintain a safe working environment. We will provide, so far as is reasonably practicable, safe places and systems of work, safe plant and machinery, safe handling of materials and substances, the provision of adequate safety equipment and ensure that appropriate information, instruction, training and supervision are given. We regard all Health & Safety legislation as the minimum standard and expect management to achieve their targets without Compromising Health and Safe.
